

Code Test

Role: Front-End developer

Challenge: Create a responsive login page based on the attached Image.

The triangles should always exactly cross the centre and always start at the top right and end at the bottom left point even, if the page is zoomed in or out and also in any screen size, no images should be used and only CSS, JS, JQuery should be used for achieving the below effect.

Associated Resources: image007.png